Earth, Wind, and Fire

When the day of Pentecost had come, the disciples were all together in one place. And suddenly from heaven there came a sound like the rush of a violent wind, and it filled the entire house where they were sitting. Divided tongues, as of fire, appeared among them, and a tongue rested on each of them. All of them were filled with the Holy Spirit. (Acts 2:1-4a)

The arrival of the Holy Spirit on that fateful Pentecost Sunday is quite dramatic, as well it should be. No hushed tones, no creeping in on tippy toes, and no light tap on the shoulder took place that morning. This is a moment of manifestation of the Almighty to humanity and all creation. Her arrival, reminiscent of God’s appearance at Mount Sinai to Moses and the Israelites, was like a tornado and a forest fire – earthly events that are to be taken seriously. She was not to be missed or misunderstood.

As people of the incarnation, I think we Episcopalians can appreciate these physical manifestations accompanying the Holy Spirit. I believe they were present for a variety of reasons. One reason was so that these first recipients of the full outpouring of the Holy Spirit were able to concretely understand that something amazing was happening.

What a dud Pentecost would have been if there was any uncertainty or ambiguity as to what was unfolding. Would this feast day be so highly regarded and ranked with Easter and Christmas as one of the most important days on the Church calendar, if the only thing the disciples experienced was a sensation or feeling? Imagine the conversation:

Peter: Did anyone just feel something?

Andrew: Like what?

Peter: I don’t know. Maybe something warm?

Mary: No, not that I can tell.

That is not how God comes to dwell with all creation. Thanks be to God! God makes God’s self known. By seeing and hearing these physical manifestations of the Holy Spirit, the disciples were more properly disposed to understand that God was doing something awesome. And then, upon seeing and hearing these manifestations, they were touched by the Holy Spirit, consumed, filled and set on fire. They suddenly discovered within themselves the promise Jesus made and they finally began to understand. Pentecost changed their lives, and God was the active agent.

The disciples were together when they received the Holy Spirit and they all received the same spirit. No disciple that day became a sole participant in Christ’s mission. Together they were transformed into a true community.
As stated in the Catechism: “The Church is the community of the New Covenant”, and it “carries out its mission through the ministry of all its members.” (Book of Common Prayer 854-55)

Today, there may not be literal wind and fire, but I imagine we all have encounters with the Holy Spirit, encounters hopefully that blow us away and shape our lives, because the Holy Spirit is still very active and she wants to enter our lives in the same way. The Almighty’s eternal desire is to set our hearts on fire, imparting us with true love, strength, and grace so we can become our better selves, living lives for others and making the world a better place.

Pentecost is not so much about our sanctification, as it is about us being able to bring God’s sanctification to all of God’s creation. Pentecost enables us to be God’s agents in a world that very much needs God’s hope, grace, and love.

The Good News is that God is still with us and the Holy Spirit is still working through us. We are a community that’s constantly renewed, restored, and reborn. New life is emerging, and the Holy Spirit is ready to help us. With her help, ordinary people do extraordinary things, as evidenced by all that you do and accomplish here at Grace Church.

Dear friends, this Pentecost – may the Holy Spirit strengthen our faith, send us forth to proclaim a universal message of Good News, and continue to form us into the people and community God wants us to be.

Come, Holy Spirit, come!

Grace and peace,

The Rev. Tom Synan

Request publicity for your event!

To make Grace Church events as successful as possible, the Communications Committee developed an online form to request event publicity. The form, which includes instructions for completing and submitting the request, is found on the Grace website under the Outreach Commission or https://www.gracechurchamherst.org/wp-content/uploads/2023/07/Request-for-Event-Publicity-Form-2023.pdf. A Litany for the Restoration of Peace in The Holy Land

God of peace, we pray for the people of Palestine and Israel in these perilous and dangerous times.
For all who are fearful for the safety of their loved ones and themselves, we pray that the assurance of unfailing love, even in the midst of danger, settles upon them. Shelter them from despair and protect them from harm.
For all who are wounded, we pray they find healing.
For all who have died, we pray they find rest.
For all who grieve, we pray they find comfort.
For leaders on all sides, we pray for a renewed will to lay down arms, for the strength to put the grievances and wrongs suffered by their people to rest, and for the conviction to embrace a path of reconciliation and peace that preserves the rights and dignity of all of your children.
God of mercy, help us to remember there is no border that can separate us from your great love and protection, no stone that can sound the well of your deep mercy.
God of justice, we pray with hopeful hearts that your beloved children of the Holy Land will be spared a future of sustained violence and unrest and that a recognition of the humanity of all people will prevail.
We ask all this in the name of your Son, Jesus. Amen.

News from the Haiti Ministry

We now have the final tally from the February soup supper event and can happily announce that, because of your generous participation, we raised $4,570 - a record amount - to support the children of St. Matthew’s school in Bayonnais. A huge thank you to everyone who contributed!

And more thanks, this time directly from the principal of the school, Clibert Massillon, who writes from Haiti: “I want to compliment and thank our very dear supporters at Grace Church and St James Church [the church in Maryland that partners with Grace on this project] for all the help you have given to Haiti, specifically to the school in Bayonnais. Your support is truly indispensable, especially for our most vulnerable families.”

Coming to Grace Church Gardens in June!

The Grace Church garden ministry is pleased to be in the planning stages of a new pollinator garden space. We are working with John Root, who is the founder of Pollinate Amherst, a citizen advocate group that was instrumental in the passage of the Pollinator Resolution by the Amherst Town Council. Pollinate Amherst has planted a demonstration garden at Groff Park and is in the process of renovating another pollinator garden at the Larch Hill Conservation Area.

This new garden will be in the front of Grace Church next to the Connector walkway. The daffodils that are currently in this space will be re-located to other areas around the church.

We will provide more information about the pollinator garden closer to the spring planting.

Planned Giving – Your Will, Trust and Other Options for Beneficiary Designations

There are many ways through your estate plans to provide future support for your loved ones and for organizations important to you, such as Grace Church. A periodic review is wise to take into consideration changing circumstances. Updating designations in your will or trust are common and warrant review with your lawyer, but minor updates for individual or institutional beneficiaries may also be achieved through:

1. a simple codicil to your will (with modest legal fees)
2. designating portions of a life insurance policy
3. designating portions of a retirement plan (most 401(k), 403(b), and IRAs) keeping in mind the designations already made in your will or trust

You are welcome to contact Planned Giving Committee members Doug Adler and Kent Faerber.

Climate Change Prayer

Holy God,
earth and air and water are your creation,
and every living thing belongs to you:
have mercy on us
as climate change confronts us.

Give us the will and the courage to simplify the way we live,
to reduce the energy we use,
to share the resources you provide,
and to bear the cost of change.

Forgive our past mistakes
and send us your Spirit, with wisdom in present controversies and vision for the future to which you call us in Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

11th Hour Bell Ringing for Climate Change

Saturday, May 11th

Calling all ages to be part of the 11th Hour Bell Ringing for Climate Change Saturday, May 11 at 10:45. Join friends and neighbors for prayer and meditation before the 11th hour ringing begins. No one is too young; no one is too old. Our church bell will be rung for 11 minutes on the 11th day of each month at 11 AM. After the bells ring, everyone will have a chance to make a joyful noise of resolve. Bring your cow bells, dinner bells, kazoos, and gongs, drums, cymbals, and noise makers of any kind. Signs and banners are encouraged. Who knows, maybe some folks passing by will stop and join in or at least catch the spirit of what committed people can do when joined together in faith.
